Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Boxelder Job Corps Civilian Conservation Center is in its 24th year and, since starting operations in August 1965, approximately 10,000 enrollees have participated in the program; and,

WHEREAS, Boxelder Job Corps offers an equal opportunity for South Dakota young men and women to complete Graduate Equivalency Diploma requirements and obtain a vocational skill; and,

WHEREAS, Approximately 50 percent of Boxelder Job Corps enrollees are South Dakota residents; and,

WHEREAS, Job Service of South Dakota and Boxelder Job Corps placed more than 84 percent of 1988 graduates into employment; and,

WHEREAS, During the last six years, Boxelder Job Corps enrollees contributed approximately $2.3 million in community service and work projects for the cities of Deadwood, Rapid City, Sturgis, Box Elder, Spearfish and Brownsville and for the U.S. Forest Service; and,

WHEREAS, Boxelder Job Corps, in cooperation with Job Service of South Dakota and the United States Department of Labor, has contributed directly to the educational, social and economic well-being of all South Dakotans:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 4 through 8, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I urge all South Dakotans to recognize the self-supporting, skilled youth of our state who have benefitted from this effective and successful training, and I further recommend that young men and women, ages 16 through 21 who are not enrolled in school, give serious consideration to the educational and vocational training opportunities offered by Boxelder Job Corps Civilian Conservation Center.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Third Day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
